TO ADVERTISE HONDO.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Hondo Luncheon Club, S. M. Apperson of Del Rio was a guest of the Club. Mr.
Apperson came as a representative of the Del Rio Chamber of Commerce and as spokesman for the management of radio station XEF (formerly XET) in promoting a co-operative advertising plan for the Winter Garden Station and the Border Highway.

The plan, as explained by Mr. Apperson, is to have the contributing towns each sponsor programs over the station at stated times, featuring their own local talent and advertising the town's advantages and resources.

To participate in this program, Hondo will have to raise not less than $300.00 for a six months campaign.
It was the sense of the club members present that it would be helpful publicity for the town and on motion of Prof. J. G. Barry a committee was appointed to raise the necessary amount.

President Martin appointed Prof.
Barry, Prof. W. N. Saathoff, Felix
Batot, Marvin Schweers and N. C.
Johnson as the soliciting committee.

The Club was again favored with a delightful song program, Miss Esther Saathoff singing several popular selections in her beautifully trained soprano voice. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Leora Horger.

Mrs. George Gilliam and two little daughters, Evelyn Jane and Peggy, returned to Corpus Christi Sunday

homefolks here. They were accompanied to Corpus Christi by Misses Thelma and Mary Ruth Wilson, who will visit there for some time.

THE M. E. LISTENS IN.

The radio Wednesday night brought a fairly complete broadcast of the debate in the Republican National Convention at Chicago over whether or not the Republican party would straddle the question of repealing the 18th Amendment. After a two hours debate, in which it was apparent that the effort of both sides was to hide their real intent, the convention voted 681 to 472 to adopt the straddle sponsored by the party's fat boy in the Whitehouse. The plank as adopted reminds one of a mischievous kid tantalizing a kitten by letting it play with the ball while he holds the thread. It, in effect, sets a glass of beer before the thirsty
—to make them hope—while, to cinch the dries, it lets them hold the string that's tied to it.

WANTS TO GO TO THE LEGIS- LATURE.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the announcement of Joe W.
Caldwell, Jr., of Aberton, Dimmitt County, for the office of Representative in the Legislature for the 77th District. Mr. Caldwell is a young man, a native of Alabama but has been a resident of Texas for the past six years. He is an ex-er-ice man, having enjoyed during the world war
at the age of 16.

Mr. Caldwell offers the following platform for the consideration of the voters of the District:

I ADVOCATE

1. The immediate reduction of State Ad Valorem taxes by reapportioning the funds derived from the gasoline tax as follows: one-third to the public schools; one-third to the Highway Department; and one-third to the State ad valorem general reserve fund.
2. The exemption of the homestead from taxes—to the amount of $3,000.
3. That all members of the Legislature be required to file a sworn statement for public record showing the amount of income they derive from the railroads, the oil companies, the power companies and all other public utilities.
4. The elimination of useless and overlapping boards, bureaus and commissions, and the adoption of a policy of retrenchment and economy in every department of the State Government.

I OPPOSE.

1. The $350,000,000.00 bond issue proposed by Gov. Sterling and endorsed and recommended by his political spokesmen.
2. The methods, practices and policies of the present administration which have resulted in the expenditure by the State during the fiscal year of 1931 of over $100,000,000.00
and the levying of additional taxes upon our already overburdened people.

Mr. Caldwell, accompanied by his friend, T. T. Moore, of Uvalde, was in Hondo Wednesday, meeting the voters, and arranged to return later, probably on next Trades Day, July 13th, and fill a speaking date.

Notice of the exact date will be published later.

Too Much ACID

MANY people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion. They call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drug store.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia tooth-paste.

A Chicago gangster who killed wife has surrendered to the police. The District Attorney is going to his income tax returns trying to establish a case against him.

"Do you play golf?" he asked simple gushing maiden.

"Dear me, no," she bashfully replied. "I don't believe I should know how to hold a caddy."

FAT MAN REDUCES

53 POUNDS---OH BOY!

Don't be stubborn, you big fat men—throw off your fat before your fat throws you into the discard. Do as Mr. S. A. Lanier of Sawtelle, Calif., did—read his letter:

"I have used two reducing belts to no benefit but since using Kruschen Salts each morning in my coffee I have taken off 7 lbs. in a week and eat most anything I like. I weighed 243 lbs. 6 months ago and now I weigh 190 lbs."

Take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets—now you know the safe way to lose unsightly fat.

For a trifling sum you can get a jar of Kruschen Salts that lasts 4 weeks at any drugstore in the world—but be sure and get Kruschen—your health comes first.

IN MEMORY OF JOE GRIMES.

Dead, yes, dead do we call him.
Joe, oh must this be you?
A flower faded and vanished,
A heart that was tender and true.

What is this thought, that pains us?
Yes, of course, you would like to know.
Is it not a friend sincere,
Who has left us sorrowing here?
Yes of him it is we are thinking
Who always greeted us with a smile.

Yes, we will miss him,
Oh, Joe, we loved you so!
Our hearts ache with grief and pain.
Dearest, we beg you pray for us.
That in Heaven we will meet you again.

May we be strong to bear this grief,
And may the refreshing thoughts fill
Our hearts with joy. That in the future
We will meet with our loved one,
In Heaven to part no more.

By a friend,

CHILD need REGULATING?

CASTORIA WILL DO IT!

When your child needs regulating, remember this: the organs of babies and children are delicate. Little bowels must be gently urged—never forced. That's why Castoria is used by so many doctors and mothers. It is specially made for children's ailments; contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. You can safely give it to young infants for colic pains. Yet it is an equally effective regulator for older children. The next time your child has a little cold or fever, or a digestive upset, give him the help of Castoria, the children's own remedy. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

In a church that was filled to the doors, a solemn and dignified service was conducted last Sunday in which Milton Falkenberg, son of the Rev.
August Falkenberg, founder of this church, delivered the sermon. Many friends were privileged to hear the home boy, who displayed much native talent in the art of public speaking.
The text for the sermon was Luke 12, 35-40. We hope to hear the Candidate of Theology again before he resumes his studies in Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa. Milton will spend most of the vacation months working at Seguin.

The service next Sunday will be held in the German language beginning at 10:30 o'clock. There will be English service at night at 8 o'clock.
The Sunday school and Bible class meet at 9:15.

On Sunday, June 26, the confirmands will be examined preparatory to confirmation on the following Sunday. This service begins at 10:00 o'clock.

Aline, Georgia Mae and Joneil

ing a couple of weeks with their grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Leinweber.

In our announcement column this week appears the announcement of Mr. F. G. Muennink for re-election to the office of Tax Collector of Medina County. Mr. Muennink has filled this position in a most efficient manner for several terms past.

W. H. H. Dubose, the Zigzag berry man, was here Monday on business.
Mr. Dubose reports his berry crop all gathered and proceeds from the same fairly good. His peach crop and plum crop, however, were caught in the late spring freeze and will be extremely short.

Quite a number of Hondo people joined with the LaCoste people Sunday in celebrating at the Echle grove below the town. The blustery weather of the morning made many late about arriving, but the program was carried out in full. Field Mass was held on the ground at 9 A. M. At 11:30 a most delightful barbecue dinner with all the other good things that go with it, was served. The District Meeting of the Southwest District Staatsverband was held from 3 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon. And supper was served at 5:30. The affair was a success and those fortunate enough to attend had a most enjoyable day.

OBITUARY.

Psalms 23, 4: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

The late Maria Falkenberg was born on May 24, 1860, at Starn Hill, one of eight children born to Paul and Maria Falkenberg. She was baptized in infancy and through this the Lord blessed her with eternal life. He developed also that which He implanted in her heart and she grew up in the knowledge and faith in Jesus Christ while attending the parochial school at Bethlehem Lutheran church, Quib.
At the age of 13 years the departed was confirmed and personally renewed her baptismal vow and profession of her faith. She continued membership in that Church.

On March 25, 1876, she was joined with Heinrich B. Balzen of Starn Hill in holy wedlock. Throughout their long married life the deceased was a good wife and constant companion. The Lord blest the work of their hands. The departed gave life to 7 children, two of whom preceded the mother in death. The couple in comparatively good health, were privileged to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage some 6 years ago. The children grew up and established homes of their own, and three years ago the aged pair moved to Hondo, where they joined the St.
Paul's Lutheran church.

Four years ago Mrs. Balzen had an attack of gall stone. It lasted but a short time and she did not seem to suffer severely from it. Six weeks ago the attack came again and more serious than before. She became very ill, however she rallied again and seemed to be regaining in health. On Sunday night, June 5, her case became critical. An operation was advised and performed at Medina Hospital on Tuesday morning. For a time she seemed to be reviving from the effects of the operation. However, her hour had come and on Thursday, June 9, at 1:20 A.
M. the Lord called her to Himself.

The departed was preceded in death by two children, a son shortly after birth and a married daughter who died young, Mrs. Anna Fuos.
Two sisters, Katherine and Louisa, died while young. Those who live to mourn the passing of the departed one are: her husband, 5 children: 3 sons and 2 daughters, Joe, Ernest and Arnold Balzen, and Bertha Haag, San Antonio, and Frieda Britsch, Hondo.
Three brothers, Paul, Jacob and Karl,
and four sisters, the Mrs. Ida
Britsch, Christina Britsch, Anna Sathoff and Sophie Mueller. Among the bereaved are also 7 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

The departed soul sojourned here below 72 years and 14 days. The remains were laid to rest at Quib.
Loved and respected by all, her loss will be keenly felt among us. But what God does is well done. May the Savior comfort the hearts of those who are bowed down with grief.

W. Leibfarth.

CLARENCE RAY BOHMFALK DIES.

Clarence Ray Bohmfalk, the six-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bohmfalk, of Yancey, died of lockjaw at the Medina Hospital Friday morning at 3 o'clock, June 10, 1932.
The little body was laid to rest in the Yancey cemetery late the same day. Rev. Albert Nelson, the pastor of the Yancey Baptist church, conducting the funeral service.

The little lad was the second oldest of a family of four brothers. His passing was sudden and the cause of his fatal illness somewhat mysterious, the source of infection being traceable only to a small thorn or splinter in his foot.

The bereaved parents and other relatives have the sympathy of all.

Mrs. H. H. Collett and Mrs. O.
E. Richarz were down from Knippa yesterday on a visit to relatives and friends.

COLONIAL COVERINGS.

"Radio Patrol" with Robert Armstrong and Lila Lee is a good action drama scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at the Colonial Theatre. It is a gangster picture; however, it is the policeman's side of the story, showing their bravery and the hardships they are forced to work under. In the cast are also Russell Hopton, June Clyde and Andy Devine.

Here it is, folks! And here is "Eet"—Maurice Chevalier, prince of charmers, in a perfectly swell romantic comedy with music. And with Jeanette MacDonald to match wits and "Its" with him. A week-end of romantic merriment and outright hilarity in "One Hour With You," Maurice Chevalier's latest starring picture is scheduled for next Thursday and Friday. Others in the cast are Genevieve Tobin, Charlie Ruggles and Roland Young.

LUTHER LEAGUE.

The Hondo Luther League held its monthly meeting June 5, 1932, at which Mr. Freddie Grube was leader of the topic. Mr. Floyd Mechler gave an interesting reading. Miss Dorothy Grube was elected delegate to attend the Lutheran Chautauqua at Seguin in July. Miss Alice Muenink will entertain the League in June. Miss Elvera Schweers will be leader of the topic at the July meeting.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this means of extending our thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy in the death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. H. B. Balzen. We are especially grateful to our pastor, Rev. W. Leibfarth, for the comforting words spoken at the funeral.

Gratefully yours,
H. B. Balzen
and Children.

Merrill, pastor of the local Baptist church, who with Mrs. Merrill is away on a trip to Coleman, Abilene, and other central West Texas points, Mrs. Troy Brooks will speak to the congregation at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. There will be no services at the evening hour, the congregation joining the Methodist congregation at that hour.

The Bridgettes were delightfully entertained Monday evening at the home of Miss Bernice Speect. The living room was decorated with roses and daisies.

Miss Doris Windrow was presented a purse from the members of the Club as a birthday gift.

ATTEND C. M. T. C.

Hondo lads to report to camp include the following: Edward B. Armstrong and Vivian H. Neumann.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our deepest gratitude to the doctors of Secor Hospital of Kerrville, our dear neighbors and friends of Hondo and Morris Ranch, and Rev. R. W. Honesty Pays

The man who deals upright and fair
And treats his neighbor on the square
Can look the whole world in the face,
The odds are with him in life's race.
The man who thinks it's smart to cheat
Will find, alas, that he is beat
For in the end he will lose out.
It pays to go the honest route.
The Hondo State Bank has this to say,
There's nothing that beats the honest way.

(Copr. 1927 Adam Brown Hunter) HONDO STATE BANK

THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS MUST DECIDE THE FATE OF TEXAS RAILROADS

THE WELFARE of Texas and Texans has gone and will always go hand in hand with the welfare of Texas railroads. Their dependency upon each other is absolute.

In 1929 Texas railroads gave employment to 82,956 employees, to whom they paid annually $126,674,543 in salaries and wages. In 1930 this number decreased to 70,739 while the payroll declined to $109,892,226. In 1931 the number of employees fell to 57,098 and the payroll to $89,505,918.

This represents a decrease of more than $37,000,000 in purchasing power in Texas communities. There has been a corresponding decrease in purchase of materials and supplies by Texas railroads. The ability to have maintained railroad payrolls and purchases would have been a very important factor in overcoming the present trying economic condition.

The decline in railroad payrolls and purchases is due only in part to economic conditions. The revenues of the railroads have been affected not only by business conditions but to a very large extent by loss of traffic to trucks and buses using the public highways in competition with the railroads.

The time has come when the people of Texas must decide whether the traffic of this state can best be carried by the railroads, using facilities which they built and maintain at their own expense, or by trucks and buses using the highways built and maintained at the taxpayers' expense.

FOR THE BEEKEEPER.

Again it is our lot to record a great crop of the Huajilla, Catelaw and Mesquite honey. It is now too late to count on a heavy crop, although continued hot and dry June weather might bring in some Mesquite bloom, where the hoppers are not too bad.

The cellophane wrapped chunks of comb honey have lost out because people could not be kept from pressing their fingers into the tender comb to find whether same is real or just a painted piece of wood. Of course, they found it real, and the tender honey comb was left a bad mess.

We would appreciate a summer honey flow, even if dark, so we could increase to our full number of colonies as we have again lost considerable bees during the 9 months interval between last June and the year April. Many colonies with 100 pounds of honey last June are dead of starvation.

A writer in a bee paper asks: "Is the man braver who goes out and risks for his children than the one who lets them starve or throws them on charity?" "Which," asks he, "is braver and which is cowardice?" Of course, he is one of those who advocate holding the honey off the market to create a high price. If he starves his children thereby he should get the bravery medal applied to the seat of his pants with a cow whip.

Perhaps after all the human stink who robbed one of my apiaries four different times the past eight months did so in order to feed as future jail birds, a bunch of children. Who knows?

Our nice white honey is given all kinds of suspicious names, and is even named as bee-disease-loaded stuff by some dozen small honey producers in the black honey district. Watch out, fellows! Licorice may be good candy, and dark sugar might be natural, yet the consuming public goes for the light color.

GINGERBREAD NUTS.

1 lb. honey
1 lb. brown sugar
Grated rind half lemon
1-4 lb. butter
1 oz. ginger
1 teaspoonful soda
2 lbs. flour
Put sugar and honey with grated rind in saucepan over the fire and let it simmer well together. Remove from fire, add other ingredients, roll thin, cut and bake about 20 minutes in a slow oven.

TEXAS JERSEY COWS MAKE HIGH PRODUCTION RECORDS.

Texas breeders of purebred Jersey cattle in four counties are among the dairymen whose cows have won medals lately from the American Jersey Cattle Club, national organization of Jersey breeders, for high production in official tests. The cows qualifying for the medal awards must meet certain production and milking requirements.

Nightingale's Lady's Pat, tested by Nate Carpenter, of Free, Bell County, set a new high Texas record for a senior 3-year-old butterfat production, 365-day official test, with an exceptional yield of 808.80 lbs. of butterfat, 15,972 lbs. of milk produced in a year. She superseded a purebred Jersey cow tested in the herd of the West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon, as champion in her age class.

Combination's Bright Cherry, in the Erath County herd owned by Lee Tackett, Dublin, has won the Silver Medal with her yield of 533.19 lbs. of butterfat, 8,541 lbs. of milk in a 365-day test, started when she was 2 years and 1 month of age.

In Bexar County, Sophie's Fairland Primrose, owned by Dr. P. L. Nixon, of San Antonio has been awarded the Silver Medal for her record of 973.96 lbs. of butterfat, 12,838 lbs. of milk made in a 365-day test started when she was 4 years and 5 months of age. This cow in a previous test won a Silver Medal as a junior 2-year-old. Eminent Fox's Beauty Lass, an Ellis County producer, owned by L. C. Parks, Ennis, has lately won the Silver Medal with a yield of 606.89 lbs. of butterfat, 11,659 lbs. of milk made as a junior 3-year-old, in a 365-day test.

TEXAS JERSEY COWS MAKE HIGH PRODUCTION RECORD.

In the purebred Jersey herd owned by T. L. Casseaux, Meadow, two cows have been awarded medals of the American Jersey Cattle Club for their exceptional production records in official tests. One of these cows, Masterman's Pearl S., produced 660.25 lbs. of butterfat, 12,435 lbs. of milk in a 305-day official test, winning both the Gold and Silver Medal and setting a new high record for butterfat production of a junior 4-year-old Texas Jersey cow, 305-day official tests. Previously Masterman's Pearl S. won a Silver Medal with a production of 499.39 lbs. of butterfat, in a 305-day test when she was a junior 3-year-old.

Tormentor Fernette S., the other cow recently tested, by Mr. Casseaux, won a Silver Medal with her yield of 537.12 lbs of butterfat, 8,438 lbs. of milk in a 365-day official production test started when she was 4 years and 2 months of age.

HOW TO OBTAIN BETTER FARM PRICES.

There is meat for farmers in all parts of the country in an address recently made by Shirley W. Wynne, Commissioner of Health of New York City.

Competition among dairymen and dairymen's organizations, he said, tends to reduce the price received for milk by producers. "If I were asked how dairy farmers can obtain better prices for their milk," he continued, "I would say stop unfair competition, control your surplus, prevent its use in demoralizing markets, and give every possible aid to our campaign for increased consumption."

In other words, the dairymen must be organized. And that goes for all farmers, no matter what commodity they have to offer. General poor business conditions have of course been partly responsible for low farm prices—but lack of cooperation among farmers themselves has unquestionably done as much or more to knock prices down and keep them down.

On the day the last "independent" farmer joins a sound cooperative, agriculture will have real and permanent prosperity. And in the meantime, all farmers owe it to themselves and their calling to do everything possible to back up their cooperatives, not only through their own loyal support, but in bringing unorganized farmers into the fold. We live in a fast-moving, highly competitive world, and cooperation is perhaps even more essential to agriculture than to industry at large.—Industrial News Review.

Correct feeding is very necessary for insuring keeping quality of eggs. Eggs from flocks fed with cottonseed meal cannot be stored, for they will not keep, and the heavy yolk will put these eggs into a lower grade. Mash should be fed at all times, and the flocks must not get too much grass. Fresh, clean water, good housing and good care are also very essential.

Bees must have stores of high quality during the winter months or they will suffer from dysentery. It is particularly important that the honey adjacent to the cluster be good as this is the part used in the winter. If the stores are of poor quality, feed each colony about 10 pounds of heavy sugar syrup after brood rearing has ceased. The feeding should be done rapidly.

SMOOTHING DOWN THE MINISTER.

The minister called on Mrs. McShoddie.

"By the way," he remarked after a while, "I was sorry to see your husband leave the church last Sunday right in the middle of my sermon. I trust nothing was seriously the matter with him."

"Oh, no, sir," replied Mrs. McShoddie. "It was nothing very serious, but you see, the poor man does have a terrible habit of walkin' in his sleep."

ECONOMY, REFERENDUM URGED BY HOLCOMBE IN RACE FOR CONGRESS

AUSTIN, June 13.—(Sp)—Oscar Holcombe, of Houston, attending the state Democratic executive committee meeting here, gave his views on national problems. Mr. Holcombe is a candidate for congressman-at-large, place No. 2.

He will be remembered by the people of Texas as having been one of the youngest mayors to ever have served a large city. He was elected mayor of Houston in 1921, when only 32, and served in that capacity for eight years. This is the only political office ever held by Mr. Holcombe.

He advocates elimination of many governmental bureaus and adjustment of salaries; is against any more tax exempt securities; favors re-submission of the eighteenth amendment; wants better regulation of the Wall Street market; is against relatives being employed by senators and representatives; wants trade relations resumed with Russia and favors a five-day week and six-hour day.

"Economy in government is our most vital issue," said Mr. Holcombe. "I favor the elimination of a large number of the bureaus, and the consolidation of those bureaus which now overlap, and a general reduction of salaries, through a sliding scale, up to a reduction of 25 per cent in salaries of members of congress."

Relief for Taxpayers. "The cost of living has been reduced materially in the past two years. All industry has found it necessary to adjust salaries and enforce economy. Our taxpayers must have relief. Unless we pare down governmental cost, starting in Washington and going down to the smallest hamlet of this land, we cannot again have a secure and sound prosperity."

"I advocate a law to prohibit issuance of additional tax exempt securities. Instead of capital, at this time, being put into business channels, it is making a wild scramble to get every issue of tax exempt securities offered by the federal government. The capitalists purchase these securities, pay no tax whatsoever on them, and sit idly by while you and I pay the cost of operating this government."

"Let us not cancel the debt owed us by foreign governments, but it may be well for readjustments to be made in these debts, provided our former allies cancel reparations with Germany. "Loyally do I yield obedience to each and every provision of the constitution, and I recognize the right of the people in this representative government to change, alter or amend the constitution."

Vote Re-Submission. "The most controversial subject that is now before our people is the prohibition issue. The Democratic state convention, in Houston, a few weeks ago adopted overwhelmingly a resolution in favor of a re-submission of this issue to a vote of the people. As your congressman, I would vote for re-submission."

"The Democratic state convention also took action on the payment of adjusted compensation to our ex-service men by endorsing the payment of all balances justly due them. Legislation to bring this about will be supported by me."

OSCAR HOLCOMBE.

"I favor a law prohibiting the employment of any relative by a congressman, or any other governmental official, a law similar to the anti-nepotism law of Texas."

"Russia's three hundred millions of people should be permitted to trade with us. We refused to trade with them because we do not like their form of government. We may not like the absolute monarchy of Japan, but we would think our government foolish to cancel our trade treaty with them."

Equal Protection. "We should have a tariff for revenue only, and the sooner we lower our tariff wall so that our debtor nations can trade with us, the sooner will they be able to pay what they owe. Whatever tariff we have should be fixed with the idea of equal protection to the farmer and the manufacturer."

"I favor a five-day week and, ultimately, a six-hour day. I think this shortened work period is necessary to properly distribute employment, because of the tremendous increase of our productivity, due to labor saving machinery."

"I favor better regulations of the New York Stock Exchange and of those exchanges that speculate in cotton, wheat and other commodities, so that these exchanges will be of more value to commerce and less use to gamblers."

"I stand for the decentralization of power that has gradually been assumed by Washington, and the return to the states of the powers and functions that rightfully belong to them, as the framers of our constitution so intended, to the end that our government will be a government of the people, by the people and for the people."

"Bobbie, aren't you glad you have a little baby brother?"
"No, I wanted a dog."

TOO MUCH work, too much mental strain, too much worry... then "NERVES". How they torture you, tire you, keep you awake nights!

"NERVES" make you irritable, restless; give you Headache, Indigestion... "NERVES" make you look and feel old... weaken resistance and pave the way for serious nervous or organic trouble. J. M. Foster, a druggist, suffered tortures from Over-wrought Nerves. He had dozens of so called "Nerve Remedies" in his store. One by one he tried them without relief until... But let Mr. Foster tell his experience in his own words.

cause of all this no official is going to oppose the governor's will unless impelled by a sense of public duty to do so.

The next legislature will certainly deal with the question of reorganizing the state government. I warn the citizens of this state that they had better do their lobbying before election. Make all candidates state positively whether they will put the government under control of the people by elections or under one big machine by appointments. Patriots won our liberties by fighting and provided that we may preserve them by voting. Do the people think enough of the ballot to take the trouble to ask the candidates for the senate and house how they stand and leave at home all who do not believe in the ballot? It is a foregone conclusion the masses will not maintain a lobby at Austin, but they can win the fight before election if they will but act with intelligent determination.

POLITICAL ECONOMY AND COLLEGE PROFESSORS.

It is deplorable that many of our school teachers and college professors have often suppressed their own views and have taught their text books of errors, through fear of losing their jobs if they taught otherwise.

Professor Edward A. Elliott, Economic teacher of Texas Christian University in an address before the Convention of the Texas State Federation of Labor a few days ago, is reported to have said: "Wage cutting by employers of labor over the entire Nation is largely responsible for the disorganization of the markets and for the general depression of economic conditions facing the United States."

This boldly reverses the teachings of the past. At the same convention, President Parks of Dallas is reported to have said: "I am convinced that proper relief from our present unemployment must come through the rebuilding of the entire economic system that will not only provide employment but will keep man-power absorbed as new mechanical devices are developed for its displacement."

He thus boldly avers that our past economic teachings have been erroneous and must be revised. He says further: "The economic structure on which this country has been operating has crumbled and a system of government is to be condemned which allows the hoarding of food and money while thousands of people go hungry and are idle."

Mr. W. G. Steward, a thoughtful economic student and writer, recently said: "The great Universities and Colleges of this country for many years have consistently disposed of man after man who has dared to tell the truth about where our nation is drifting until at the present time practically all of the teachers of political economy are so thoroughly cowed that they fear to teach anything but the propaganda put out by the great money powers."

Only recently a teacher in one of our State Universities said to his students: "If I should tell what I know about finances to my classes today I would be 'fired' tomorrow!" This is a typical example of the condition in practically all of our schools.

Our intellectual leaders under these circumstances can do little towards helping to correct present conditions until first the Presidents of our great Universities will set their economic teachers free from the thralldom of Wall Street dictation, and then we can soon be on the way to a real solution.

If our common schools and colleges are to reflect hope for the human race and become beacons of truth and progress our teachers should scrap those old text books on political economy and at least make an effort to retrieve our future citizens and our government from the errors under which the present generation is so sorely handicapped.

"In most cases the best thing the state can do is keep its directing or its eleemosynary hand off and confine itself to seeing that those natural forces which have built society and industry are left as free and untrammelled as possible to work out their own salvation."—Albert C. Ritchie, Governor of Maryland.

BETTER ACT NOW

By Fred W. Davis.

The next regular session of the legislature will consider the most far-reaching proposal for the reorganization of the state government that has been offered since statehood. The arguments for such proposal will center around the necessity for a reduction in governmental expenses and the simplifying of our cumbersome, expensive state machinery.

There will be a demand for reduction of expenditures that will be hard to resist. And the demand to reduce the payroll by consolidations and eliminations as one of the means of securing a reduction of expenses will be almost as persistent. It goes without the necessity of argument that public expenses should be reduced all along the line. Also governmental authority is so attenuated through numerous boards, bureaus and commissions that reorganization is necessary to eliminate a great deal of waste. But the principle upon which such reorganization may be brought about may vary as widely as autocracy, or a government by the few, and democracy, or a government by the masses.

I have repeatedly called attention to our tendency to take all practical government away from the people, that is, the government that deals with our everyday business affairs, and put it under appointment. This has been encouraged by extensive propaganda to the effect that in order to secure honest and competent officials we must remove their selection from politics by making them appointive. And this doctrine persists, despite the fact that both history and logic prove it is false. It is a damnable political philosophy because it creates the impression that when the people participate in the selection of officials the results show inefficiency or corruption, or both, but if they are appointed the selections are made solely upon merit. In other words, the ballot is a bad thing, and if we are going to have an efficient, honest government we must remove it from the people. And to take the government away from the people is almost the sole design of the leading advocates of this school of politics.

They say our elections are disturbing factors in our government—that we lack stability. The truth is an elective government is much more stable than an appointive one under the general plan of appointments made by the governor. This is true even under the plan of appointments for six years. Most of our governors serve four years and none of them longer, hence a majority of a six year board is under his political control. This also makes a majority change with each administration. This is not the history of the divisions of our state government under elections, such as Superintendent of Public Instruction, Land Commissioner, Commissioner of Agriculture, etc.

But who are our elections designed to disturb except the unfaithful public servants. I'll admit that every individual and concern that is enjoying special privileges or hopes to become the recipient of public favors looks with disgust upon our elections. They fear them.

Judging the future by the past, I now make the prediction that every lobbyist of special interests, backed by the trust-controlled press, will be in Austin next regular session of the legislature crying economy and consolidations. The consolidations they recommend will be under appointment of the governor. Such action should be resented by every voter in the state. It should also be resented by every member of the legislature who honors and trusts the people to whom they appealed during the campaign.

Consolidated government under appointment would not, in the long run, prove economical, although the costs may be mainly levied more indirectly. We have a habit of trying to make ourselves believe that government is not costing us anything unless we pay the money to the tax collector. But what difference does it make in the bank balance if the money is paid to the gasoline pump operator, insurance agent, game warden, etc., instead of the tax collector? This general notion that it is not costing anything may cause the ones who handle the money to be more extravagant in its expenditures.

That part of government which deals with our everyday business affairs is what we are most directly concerned about. And those who administer these governmental activities should have to covenant directly with the people instead of having to obey a political machine under the control of the governor. The parties who administer government are going to feel responsible to the source from which they secure their authority. If they are a segment of a big political ring they will obey the ring, but if they must account directly to the people as to policies upon which they sought election they will consider and endeavor to obey the people. A candidate for governor cannot enunciate specific policies for the numerous branches of our state government because he is compelled to confine his campaign to a few outstanding political issues. He is not permitted to announce in advance the personnel of his force, hence the people cannot know what to expect, except in a general way. A decentralized government under election enables the people to act directly upon the personality of the candidates and the specific policies enunciated during the campaign. It is not first class nonsense to say the voters are competent to select one party to run the whole machinery, yet not competent to select the subdivision heads. The whole is equal to the sum of its parts.

It was stated by one governor that elections deprived the governor of the control over state officials he should have. Expressed another way, he was complaining because elected officials were trying to please the people rather than the governor. But if the governor had no appointments except his own office force he still would have sufficient authority, if backed by leadership and public integrity, to have a harmonious administration. He can recommend specific legislation, which now has prior claim for consideration. He can call the legislature for any purpose, at his own discretion. He has the power by veto of two-thirds of both houses, and, according to common practice of adjournment, has absolute authority over all appropriations. And, as chief executive of the state, has almost unlimited power whenever he considers an emergency exists. Be-

HISTORICAL SOCIETY NOTES

The Castro Colony Historical Association held its first annual business meeting, as required by the by-laws and constitution, in Castroville, Sunday, June 12, 1932. The following statements, by Mr. Herbert Mills, Chairman of the Park Committee, were read to the members:

To the Castro-Colony Historical Society:

We the Committee, appointed you to design and build a park as setting for the monument erected at September Square, have completed our work.

The work has been a pleasure, and we hope that we have succeeded in creating a park which is worthy of the Monument around which it is built.

It is also our sincere hope that since this Monument and Park came into being to keep forever fresh the memory of those hardy pioneers who created this County, it will be carefully tended and forever well kept.

We tender our sincere appreciation to the various business houses in Castroville for their donations, to Mr. Suehs for the use of his water, to Mr. Bob Rihn and his men, without whose help our cost would have increased, to Mr. Henry Haas and Mr. Louis Mangold for their generous help, to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Geiger who donated the plants, to the men and boys who gave of their time, and to the Mexican men who each gave a day's labor.

We submit for your information the attached statement, which shows the cost of construction and maintenance to date, and the balance on hand to be for the further up-keep of the park.

Assuring you of the pleasure it has given us to carry out your instructions, and hoping that our efforts meet with your approval, we give into your keeping September Square.

Sincerely yours,
The Park Committee.

MY AUTO 'TIS OF THEE

From The Owl.
My auto 'tis of thee,
Short cut to poverty
Of thee I chant.
I blew a pile of dough
On you two years ago,
And now you refuse to go,
Or won't or can't.

Through town and country side,
You were my joy and pride;
Oh happy days,
I loved thy gaudy hue,
Thy nice white tires so new;
But now you're down and out for true,
In many ways.

To thee, old rattle box,
Comes many bumps and knocks;
For thee I grieve.
Badly thy top is worn,
And gone the blare of horn
Thy engine sings a wheezy song
I do believe.

Thy perfume swells the breeze.
While good folk, choke and sneeze.
As we pass by.
I paid for thee a price;
I would buy a mansion twice,
Now everybody is yelling "ice",
I wonder why.

Thy motor has the grip
Thy spark plugs have the pip,
And woe is mine.
I too have suffered chills,
And all its kindred ills,
Endeavoring to pay my bills,
Since thou wert mine.

Melvin Traylor Asks Curb on Mounting Cost of Government

Chicago Banker Shows Need of Caution in Spending Tax-payers' Money

Would Reform Tax Methods

Speaking before the International Chamber of Commerce at Washington, Melvin A. Traylor, President of the First National Bank of Chicago, said in part:

Another field in which those responsible for leadership must do some hard, sound thinking if we are to avoid disaster is that of public expenditures.

In this country, government is supposed to abide with the people, and yet we know that in no other field does leadership exert so great an influence upon the thought and action of the people as in the political sphere.

In the fifteen-year period, from 1913 to 1928, our national income was estimated to have increased from about 34½ billion dollars to 81 billion dollars annually, or 135 per cent; in the same period the expenditures of all governmental divisions in the United States have increased from a little less than three billion dollars to more than 12½ billion dollars, or approximately 300 per cent.

It is perfectly true, of course, that insofar as the Federal Government is concerned, the major part of the increase in that direction is accounted for by our participation in the World War; but it is interesting to observe that for the fiscal year ending in 1928, Federal expenditures were only 31½ per cent of the combined outlay for all political administration in the United States.

Local Expenditures Big Item

Figures are not available for the years following 1928, except for the Federal Government, whose expenditures increased 10.7 per cent for the fiscal year ending in 1929, and 6 per cent in 1930. It may be assumed that like increases have occurred in other political subdivisions of the country. For the year ending in 1928, the cost of administration of State Governments amounted to 14½ per cent of the total; of the remainder, over 54 per cent went to sustain local governments.

Naturally, those responsible for government desire to give their constituency the finest educational facilities, the best roads, streets, public parks, playgrounds, and other facilities obtainable, but, after all, there is no denying the fact that expenditures for such purposes bear a very close relation to the individual, because they mortgage his future earnings for consumable and rapidly deteriorating goods.

Every bond issue for the public welfare is an installment debt on the earning capacity of every individual and enterprise in the community affected. Not only does it involve installment amortization of the debt itself, but a constantly increasing charge for maintenance and upkeep if the improvement is to be preserved against early deterioration and quick ruin.

Most of the taxing machinery of the country was created at a time when the present volume of public debt was not thought possible; and it is, therefore, inadequately and ineffectually adjusted to meet the emergencies of the present burden.

The consequences is that in almost every major political subdivision of the country certain classes of wealth escape taxation, or pay little, while other types of property are charged with an unbearable obligation.

The duty of leadership, therefore, in this field is two-fold. First, and most important of all, a greater degree of caution must be exercised in the creation of government obligations; and, second, an immediate reform in taxing machinery must be undertaken.

Effects of "Federal Aid"

In connection with the creation of indebtedness, it is high time that those responsible for State administration consider the pernicious and seductive influence of so-called Federal aid for public improvements.

In many instances, this policy of public expenditure approaches closely to political bribery and in almost every case, lends itself to political log-rolling, the surrender of state sovereignty, and a gradual impoverishment of fiscal units. Moreover, we have said nothing of the proposal and promotion of undertakings which in many instances are not justified by the necessity of the situation or by the utilization of the facilities contemplated. Let there be no mistake in this respect.

Let us face the facts. Unless there is a return to sanity in the matter of public expenditures, default and repudiation of public obligations cannot be much longer avoided.

Have you met Gooffuse---Why Not?

Chicago, Convention Champion of 1932

Chicago Stadium in which the Democratic National Convention will be held. Inset—Melvin A. Traylor, member of the Civic Committee which obtained the Convention for Chicago

CHICAGO has jumped into a long lead over other cities in the race for winning convention assignments, and particularly the two great assemblages of Democrats and Republicans in June puts Chicago well in the lead and gives the "Windy City" an opportunity to stage these colorful affairs as a certain raiser to the "Century of Progress" which will be a headline attraction in 1933. Already the convention pot is boiling merrily as committees of prominent business men are organizing to receive thousands of visitors in Chicago during June.

One of the leaders who has helped to bring the blue ribbon convention assignments to Chicago is Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank and a business man with a flair for tackling big jobs. Mr. Traylor, a native of Kentucky, has achieved national and international fame in finance and business by his distinguished service in Chicago, Texas and throughout the Middle West. He was one of the delegation headed by E. N. Hurley and Mayor Cermak of Chicago who went to Washington and clinched their bid for the National Democratic Convention with a fund of $200,000.

Chicago has exceptional facilities for entertaining both Republican and Democratic conventions within a single month. Already the engineers are at work with blue prints to arrange the interior of the huge Chicago Stadium where both conventions will be held.

The assembling of both conventions promises to be a great spectacle, for the arena where delegates will be seated will accommodate between 8,000 and 10,000. Circling the arena are 16,000 seats where guests and visitors may be accommodated.

YOUNG FOLKS LISTEN.

It is time you were thinking seriously about that business education necessary for getting on the pay roll this fall, or being prepared to work your way through college. By entering Byrne College now, you can do what Miss Mary Dell Wilson, the young lady whose picture appears on the enclosed circular, has done. A year ago, now, she was graduated from high school, today she is a well paid government secretary in the State Banking Department. Hundreds of our graduates who enrolled with us when high school closed last year would not think of giving up their position and be placed back along side of those who did not take advantage of Byrne training last summer.

Don't let the employment question bother you. It isn't bothering Byrne students graduating at this time, for we have a very effective plan of securing positions for our graduates, and as business improves along toward fall it will be even easier for us to place them.

You would enjoy spending your summer under electric fans in Byrne College. Our work being practically all of the laboratory type makes it so different from the work you have been doing that it will be a rest for you. You will enjoy the association of our splendid student body of fine young men and women. There isn't a finer group to be found anywhere than you will find in Byrne College. Please remember that Byrne College with its seven copyrighted textbooks is the only school that can give you a thorough business course and graduate you by the first of September ready for the pay roll or college.

We invite you to visit us and get our special prices, and also get our plan of making up special courses of study which you can handle under our individual advancement plan. These special courses are made up with a view of giving you just what you want in the shortest time possible and at the smallest possible cost. We give you almost twice as much for your time and money as any other school in the city, but come and see for yourself.

If you have had commercial work in high school, we make a liberal allowance for the advancement already made, for we build on what you have. If you only need our Office Training and Employment Service, we are able to make you very attractive prices and terms for this service.

Please call at our office, or write or phone us, at your earliest convenience. You will find our school very interesting and very different from any other. It is more like a big business office, and our individual advancement plan and our laboratory method of teaching give us an advantage you will appreciate.

L. A. SEYMOUR ANNOUNCES FOR COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE.

Right at the eleventh hour, and after serious consideration, I decided to enter the political arena as candidate for the important office of State Commissioner of Agriculture.

I was born and reared on a farm, educated in the rural schools and between the plow handles, married a farmer's daughter, reared four sons and two daughters on the farm. I taught school several years in connection with my farming, mostly in the rural schools. Having had ten years experience in the State Department of Agriculture, serving as Chief of the Marketing Division seven years, I am amply qualified to fill the office to which I am aspiring with credit both to myself and the great State of Texas.

I have always favored the teaching of industrial and agricultural subjects in all public schools and shall, if elected, work in hearty cooperation with all instructors of these subjects.

I shall advocate rigid economy but not at the expense of efficiency. No unnecessary out of the state trips at the expense of the tax payers would be made. I favor a well balanced agriculture based upon the initiative and intelligence of the people. I will not, therefore, advocate any special session of the legislature to enact legislation that is repulsive and inimical to a free government and destructive of the God given right to own property and exercise one's constitutional prerogative to secure the blessings of liberty unto himself and his posterity. I would not attempt to force farmers to cease their established lines of production and enter other fields already full. And I would not attempt to destroy industries based upon a normal production of certain agricultural products. All division heads would be required to reside in Austin and devote their full time to their work.
